

Home

"The public can now stay in the former 'beach cottage' of South Africa's prime ministers and presidents." An excerpt from the October issue of Country Life Magazine.

Click here to read more

Less than 1 hour's drive from Durban, situated in the heart of one of the KwaZulu-Natal's most pristine coastal forest, perfectly nestled within the Umdoni Park, lies the luxury coastal getaway of Botha House.

With its relaxed atmosphere and country charm, find yourself ideally positioned to enjoy the full South Coast experience. Botha House offers fantastic diving, deep-sea fishing and birding opportunities all within a short walk or drive.

For the discerning golfer, pack the golf clubs and tee-off on the picturesque Umdoni Park Golf Course or the well-known Selborne Country Club, both merely a well struck drive from our entrance.

For the not so adventurous, visitors can enjoy peaceful nature walks through the lush coastal forest, sultry sundowner strolls along our pristine beaches or merely a lazy day spent lounging by the pool.

Comprising 6 exquisite double en-suite bedrooms, Botha House can comfortably host up to 12 visitors. Our rooms offer king and queen size beds with panoramic views and ocean vistas. Sumptuous breakfasts, as well as dinner on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights are served from our grand dining room or sun filled terrace.

Botha House provides an absolutely unforgettable experience as well as a relaxing retreat to all our visitors. We invite you to come and enjoy some of our friendly hospitality, tranquil setting and a place where you can kick your feet up and truly unwind; uniquely your home away from home.